Art Unit: 2854

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 9 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,269,742 and claims 9 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,089,151. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of recited steps of pending claim 1 is fully taught by the patented claims of each of the above patents.

Claims 1 - 11 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 9 - 19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,269,742 and claims 9 - 19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,089,151. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the steps of "applying paste to said stencil" and "wiping said paste across said top surface of said stencil" are obvious, if not inherent, in printing a paste through apertures in a stencil.

Applicant is reminded that the purpose of a terminal disclaimer is not only to prevent the prolongation of the patent term of a second patent beyond a first patent but also to ensure that the second patent shall be enforceable only for and during such period that both patents are commonly owned. Therefore, applicant must file a terminal disclaimer with respect to each of the above application(s) and/or patent(s) which formed the basis for the rejection(s) above.

The terminal disclaimer for US 6,584,897 was received by mail on August 20, 2004 and the terminal disclaimer for US 6,427,587 was received by fax on October 12, 2004. Both of these terminal disclaimers have been accepted. However, only three of the five pages of the fax transmission on October 12 were scanned into the file. Several attempts to locate the two missing pages and have them scanned have been unsuccessful. The Office sincerely regrets the delay. It is apparent from the record that applicant properly filed all four terminal disclaimers on August 20, 2004 since applicant has been charged the four terminal disclaimer fees. Accordingly, applicant need not pay the terminal disclaimer fee for the remaining two patents. Applicant has requested that an office action be mailed rather than attempt to resend the terminal disclaimers again.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
